Immanuel Lutheran College (ilc.edu) is the higher educational institution of the Church of the Lutheran Confession (CLC). It consists of three departments. In the high school, young people can transition into adulthood by being a part of the Immanuel experience. The college offers four-year degrees in education and theology, as well as a two-year Associate of Arts degree. The seminary prepares young men to serve as well-prepared candidates for the preaching ministry in our CLC congregations and in various domestic and world missions.
